ORDER GUARD RAIL ALONG DUGWAY ROAD

The county commissioners have ordered County Engineer J. C. Swartz to proceed with the erection of a guard-rail along the dugway, according to the plans and specifications furnished by the state highway department.

The guard-rail will be 1760 feet long and will be built out of either chestnut, black locust, or red cedar posts; it requiring 320 of them. The posts will be sunk three feet and six inches in the earth and three feet and eight inches will protrude above the ground. The rails will consist of two spans of white pine or oak with smooth surface on both sides so that they may be painted. They will be bolted onto the posts.

The county will furnish all material and the state will furnish the labor, which will protect the greater part of the cost. A guard-rail at the dugway is a necessity and should have been built when the new cement road was completed. Should there be an accident now along that thoroughfare the county would be liable for damages, but when the guard-rail is completed that will be eliminated.

DRAFT BOARD ORDERED TO TRIM ITS EXPENSES

They were suffering from severe colds, and to anticipate further illness, the schools were closed until Monday.

There was a flare up of the disease on Tuesday when Health Officer Knudsen stated 45 new cases were reported. Yesterday it fell off about one-third again with only about 27 new cases being reported.

CO-OPERATION IN PALESTINE

Three Thousand Jews Have Successfully Combined to Fight the High Cost of Living.

It is, therefore, with the keenest pleasure that I hear of the success of an experiment on a small scale under war conditions in Palestine, Norman Langgood writes in Leslie's. Since 1914 scarcity, disease, depreciated currency, have combined to reduce the Jewish workers almost to starvation. During the war a small group decided to take the most immediate and effective step. About three years ago 450 workers formed a co-operative society in order to fight against the rise in prices. Each worker contributed 10 francs and with this capital of 4,500 francs the society began to make its purchases. As a result the members of the society were able to purchase four times cheaper than the ordinary public. This co-operation society, "Mashbir," embraces at present about 3,000 persons and has a budget of 18,000 francs. Their first year of business showed a profit. During the second year robbery and plunder by the Turks changed this profit into a loss. The third year has now shown them again paying their way. This society includes not only workmen, but also teachers and clerks. It has applied to the commission for a credit of 120,000 francs and for authorization for one of their group to travel to Egypt to make purchases. It is, indeed, on a small scale compared with the business I cited on July 6, but the lesson is the same: The strongest single answer to the cost of living lies in co-operation.

TRAVEL ACCORDING TO MAP

Airmen on Night Raids Have Course Thoroughly Mapped Out Before Beginning Their Journey.

Before leaving on a long-distance night raid the airmen prepare their maps with great care, marking on them the detailed course from the air-drome to their objective.

By means of a small balloon, whose speed direction and height is recorded by an instrument on the ground, the force and direction of the wind at different altitudes is discovered, and the compass course, allowing for wind-drift, is marked beside the course on the map. The compass course for the return journey is also marked. The speed of the machine is calculated, and on the line of the course a series of points is marked, showing where the machine should be every ten minutes, thus enabling the airman to check his progress and to know his approximate position if he gets lost.

He watches the country below for landmarks. He sees by his map that a river should appear in a few minutes. His watch shows that he has been flying 40 minutes, and near the 45-minute mark on his map is a twisted pale blue line. He looks ahead and sees in the moonlight a silver streak and he knows he is making good time. When he is over the river he compares its outline with his map, and sees that he is crossing it at the right place.

Hun's Maliciousness Proved.
Some additional light is shed on the German destruction of the magnificent edifice that has been described as "frozen music," in an interview that Cardinal Lucon, archbishop of Reims, granted the editor of Everybody's, Howard Wheeler, who reports it in the September number. "As you know," the archbishop told Mr. Wheeler, "the Germans have stated that the French army had been using the towers of the cathedral for observation purposes and that guns had been concealed there. The fact is that the French leaders, fearing that harm would come to the cathedral, refrained at all times from using it for any military purposes whatever. When the bombardments were commenced I immediately wrote a letter to the pope, in which I solemnly swore, on my honor as a man and as a prelate of the church, that never had I abandoned my cathedral since the beginning of the war, and that never at any time had it been used for military purposes. All to no avail. The bombardment still continues and at regular intervals my old cathedral is battered piecemeal—and it breaks my heart."

Lives Saved by Steel Helmet.
The British soldier, happy-go-lucky as he is, has come to recognize the value of his steel helmet. Most of us who have been in action in France have stories to tell of our own or other men's lives saved by "tin hats," "tin lids," or "battle bowlers." A brother officer of mine has worn for something like two years a steel helmet with a dent in it as big as a small potato—a souvenir of a small lump of shell which knocked him off his feet one afternoon in the Ypres salient. I have seen a helmet in the rim of which a machine gun bullet had cut a clean nick. "The wearer of that helmet never knew he had been struck until he doffed his 'tin hat.'"—London Times.

Rat Bites Policeman.
Prohibition has its terrors. Witness Policeman Phillips, of the war emergency squad, who went prowling about a house suspected of harboring a "blind pig," in search of booze. Phillips found a suspicious-looking opening in the wainscoting and put his hand in, feeling about for a bottle of contraband. Then he drew his hand out and emitted a yell that brought his brother officers to him. "Did you find any?" they asked. "I found one," replied Phillips, "and the d—n thing bit me. It was a rat."

...and with Navy Officers,
it's a little over 80%

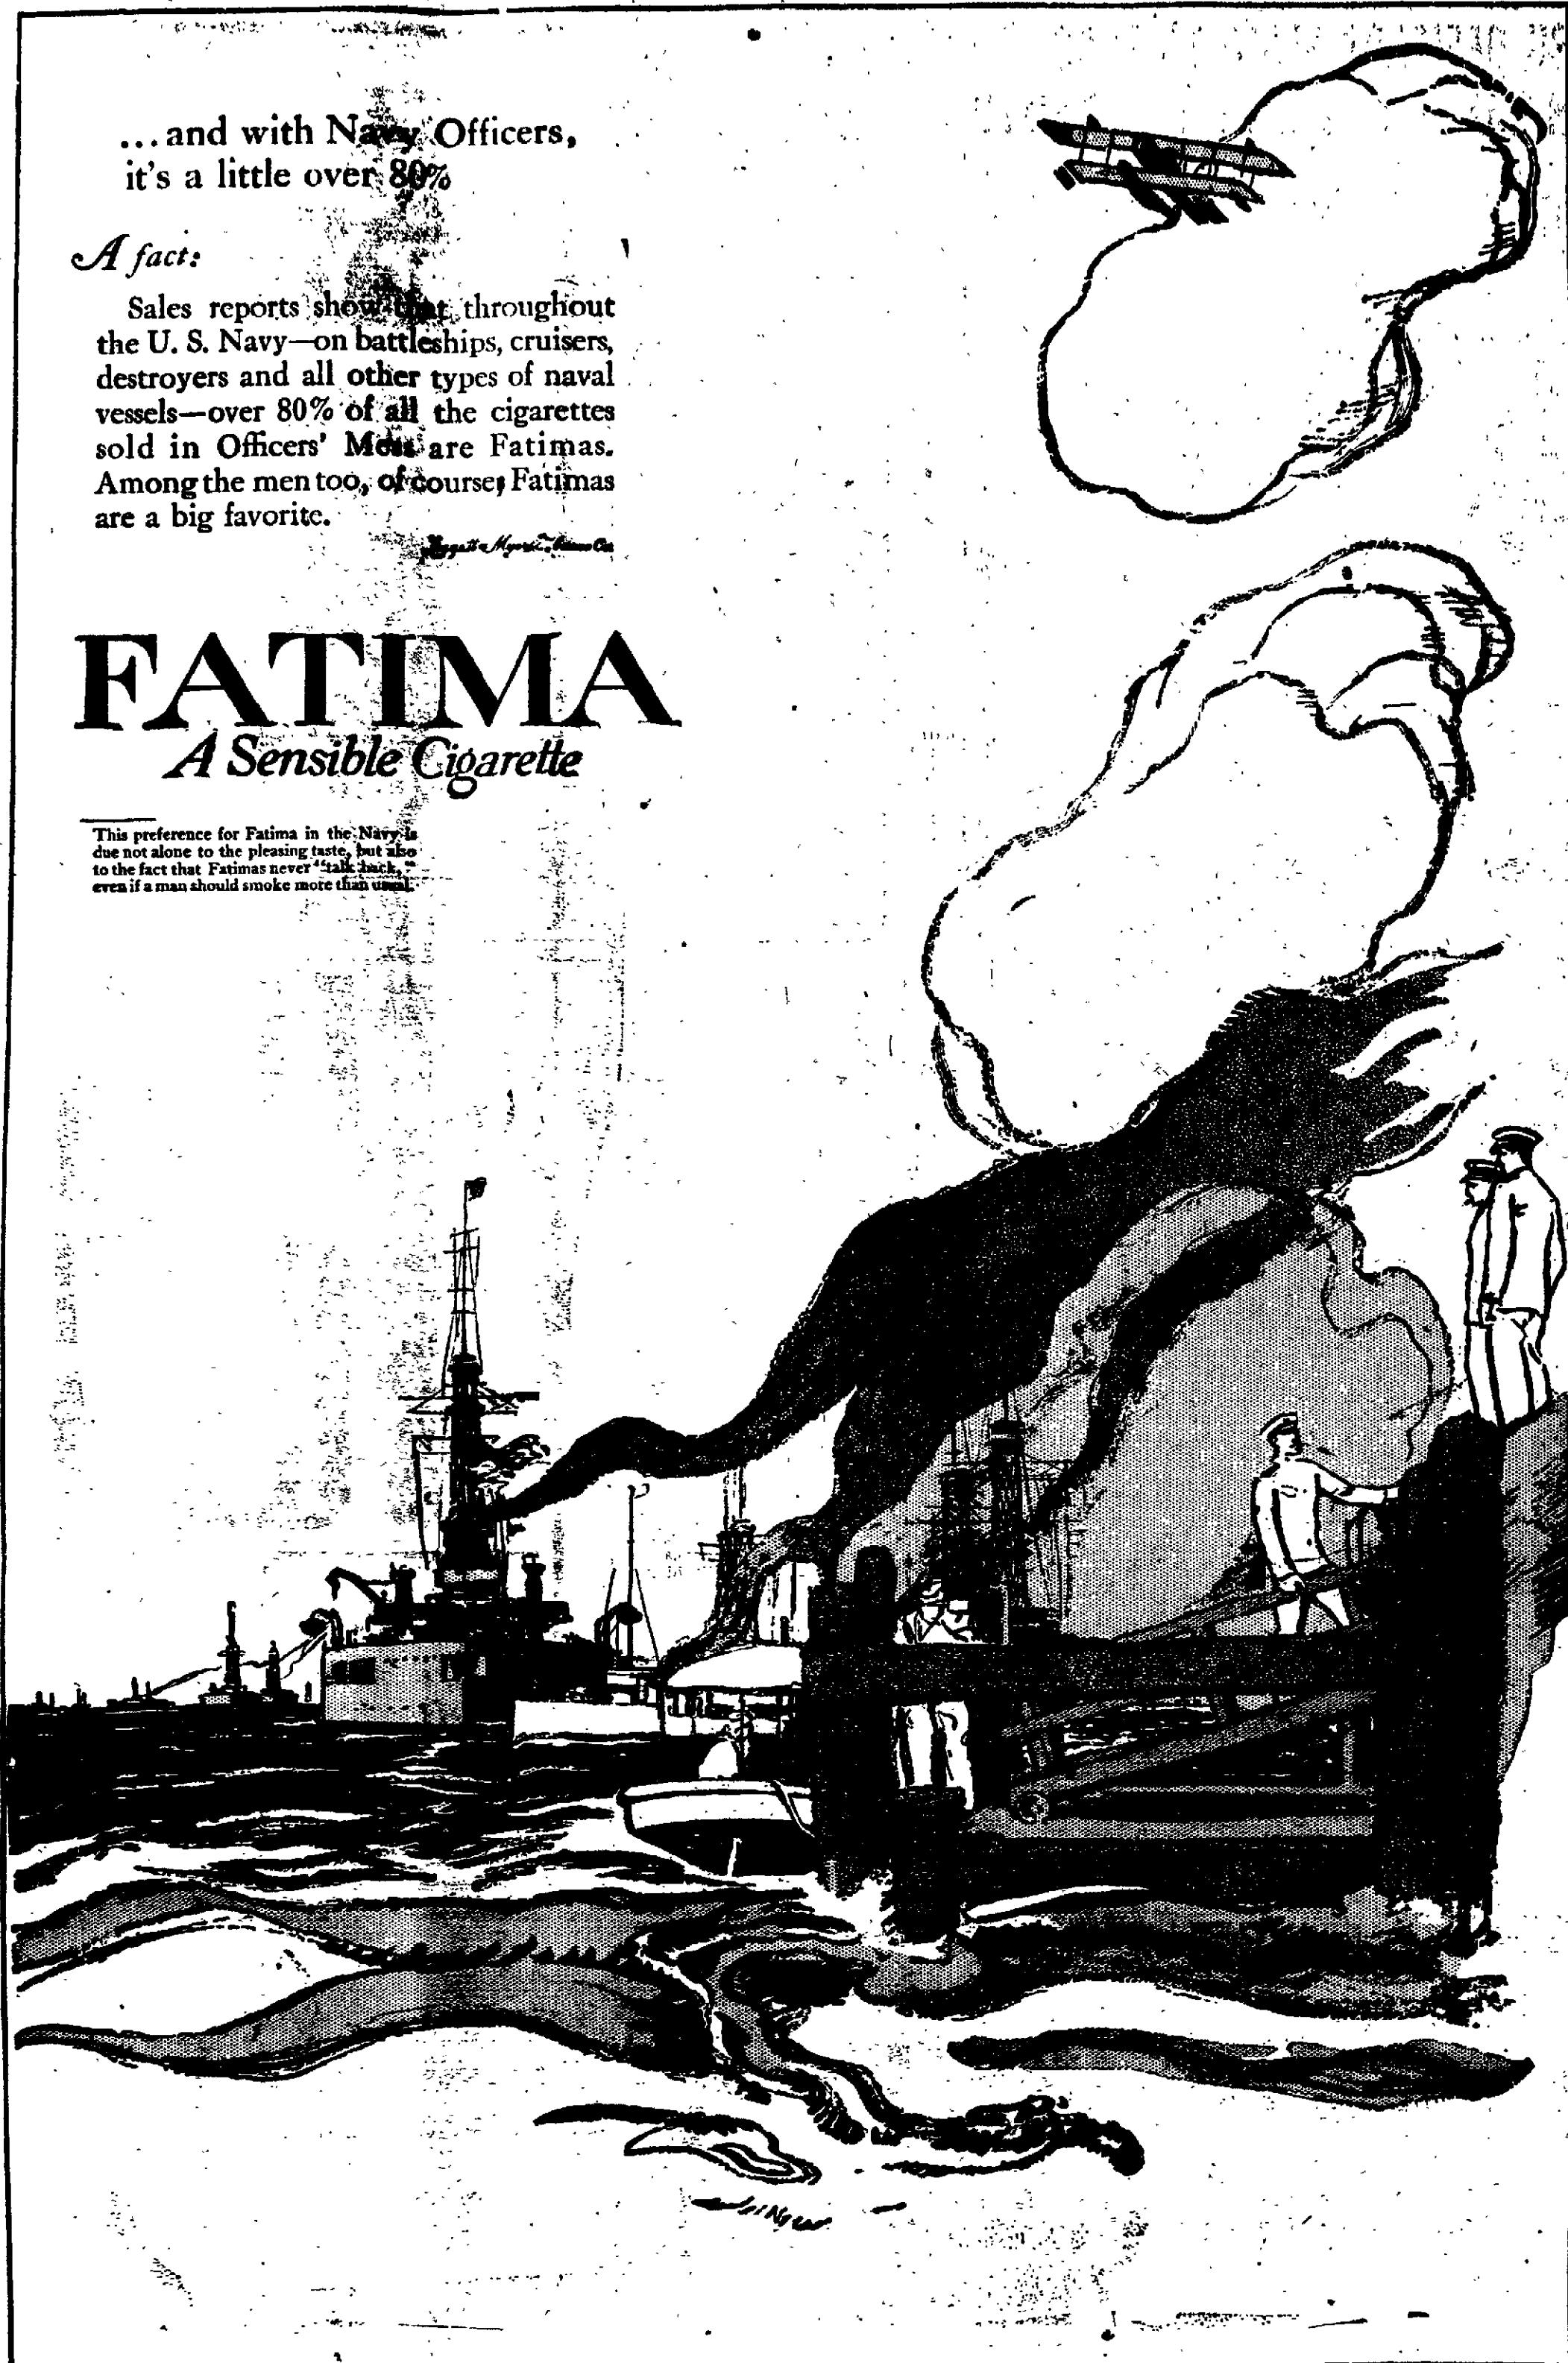

A fact:

Sales reports show that throughout the U. S. Navy—on battleships, cruisers, destroyers and all other types of naval vessels—over 80% of all the cigarettes sold in Officers' Mess are Fatimas. Among the men too, of course, Fatimas are a big favorite.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

This preference for Fatima in the Navy is due not alone to the pleasing taste, but also to the fact that Fatimas never "talk back," even if a man should smoke more than usual.

GERMAN BATTLE

craft, dirigibles kept company with the fleet and an observation balloon kept vigil.

Ten miles from Harwich the fleet was met by more British destroyers which carried crews from British submarines. These men were divided into parties of 14 for each German boat and each was transferred by American submarine chasers to the U. boats, where a British officer quickly took charge.

The first submarine boat, few in flag and it seemed a long time to the British sailors on the other vessels before the flag appeared. Finally, however, a white ensign was shown. Even this last signal of total submission by Germany did not cause the British sailors to disobey the order of silence, but the expression on the faces of the officers and men betrayed their satisfaction as each U boat displayed the colors.

At last the newly flagged submarines were brought to anchor at Harwich. The German crews were placed on a destroyer and taken to the two transport ships which had accompanied them. These vessels were escorted by destroyers to the rendezvous of the morning, where they were left to make their return trip to Germany alone.

YANK ARMY

area of almost 22,000,000 square feet have been constructed. This development of French ports increased facilities to such an extent that even if the Germans had captured Calais and other channel ports, as they had planned, the Allies loss would have been strategically unimportant.

So largely were facilities increased that the English armies could have had their bases at the lower French ports if necessary in other words American work in port construction lessened to a material degree the value to the Germans of their proposed capture of the channel ports. These figures serve in a measure to show the magnitude of American accomplishment, and the great machine is in operation today as the American third army moves forward into German territory.

During the second stage of the Argonne operation, a captured German major while in casual conversation with an American officer, said: "We knew defeat is inevitable. We know your first and second armies are operating and that your third army is nearly ready to function. We know there are more and more armies to follow. We can measure your effort. The end must come soon."

WILL MOVE HERE.

BRITISH OFFICERS MADE WAGERS ON EARLY ABDICATION OF KAISER

Missed Event By 12 Days in Predictions Made at British Hospital, Hebron Doctor Says—Letter Written Oct. 28 Showed Conditions Were Known Behind Allied Lines.

Two weeks before William Hohenzollern, former kaiser of Germany, abdicated, officers of the British forces on the western front were placing bets that he would "abdicate, commit suicide, or be assassinated within 10 days," according to a letter written by Lieutenant C. G. Bozman, former Hebron physician. Dr. Bozman's letter was written October 28, and just 12 days later Wilhelm signed his decree of abdication at the German grand headquarters at Spa. Dr. Bozman, who was originally assigned to an artillery unit in the American expeditionary forces, has been transferred to the Harvard unit of the general hospital of the British army located on the English channel. His letter to Colonel H. D. Burch of Hebron, describes much of the work which shows the great amount of labor which the hospital units are called upon to do. His letter says:

"I am glad to know that everyone at home is so enthusiastic over the war and they surely do have a perfect right to be for we are giving the world no time to breathe and are still wading right through him. We are on the last lap of the race and it will soon be the finish of the Kaiser. I am betting today that the Kaiser would either abdicate, commit suicide, or be murdered within the next 10 days."

"We had a celebration today over the capture of Lille. Flags were flying from every window and everyone was jubilant. You already know that Lille is the fifth city of France with a population of 220,000. The Americans are having the hardest fighting around St. Mihiel sector, for it is there that the French army is placed and you know what they are but they can't stop the Yanks, it makes no difference what they put against them."

NEWARK SOLDIER TELLS OF RUINED VILLAGES

Harry Richards, Battery B, 324 H. F. A., writes his sister that the pretty little French towns raided by the Germans are sad sights now, almost all buildings being destroyed. The letter written October 2nd reads:

"I haven't had any mail from any one for nearly two weeks. I got the roll of Advocates this week that you sent me. I am sitting in a dug out in the hills it is a very good place. We have a fire place. I am sitting on an old bench in front of the fire writing this letter. I was in Rennes a few days ago it is some city. I also saw part of Paris. I saw three little French towns a few days ago that had been raided by the Germans. It surely was a sad sight. All the same churches and houses and most every building was completely destroyed. It surely is awful the way they do destroy things but we are going to make them pay for all of it for we are now in action and we will give them H— I think we will have them all killed by the end of the year. I have enough souvenirs in this dug out to fill a wagon, have three swords and three rifles and will bring them home with me if I can."

The Great Test. Self-control is an easy matter when we are alone, says New Success Magazine. But the moment our lives are thrown in with others, then comes the struggle. To maintain our equanimity, to restrain the sharp retort, the impatient exclamation, to get along smoothly with disagreeable people, without friction or jarring—this is the great life test. This is what builds character, what tests manhood or womanhood, what makes the ideal employee.

Does your silk underwear stay pretty?

Or is your joy in it spoiled by its first laundering? Does your favorite pink camisole fade to a dingy white? Do your snowy combinations turn a dull yellow? Do your very nicest stockings grow thin and break easily at the side of the ankle and at the heel?

You need not have your prettiest silkwear ruined.

All the things that hurt the delicate fabric—the alkali that turns it yellow—rubbing that destroys the sheen, and wears the fine threads through—the tiny pieces of cake soap that stick to the silk and stain and weaken it—all have now been banished by the new product for fine laundering—Lux.

This way keeps it lovely!

Silk underwear washed with Lux stays white because Lux has absolutely no free alkali—stays sleek and silky because it never has to be rubbed. The fragile, pearly Lux flakes melt the instant they touch the water and dissolve the dirt in a few minutes. A few dippings up and down—and, without the slightest friction, the dirt is gone.

Your fluffiest, laciest nightgown, your sheerest camisole, come from their Lux dip as lovely as they were the day you bought them.

Use Lux on anything that pure water alone will not harm.

Don't have even one more garment ruined by ordinary soap. Order Lux today from your grocer, druggist or department store. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

How to wash silk underwear
Whisk a handful of Lux into a thick lather in very hot water. Add cold water till lukewarm. Dip your things through the foamy lather many times—work them about in the suds—do not rub. Rinse in three waters the same temperature as the water in which you washed them. Squeeze the water out—do not wring. Dry in the shade. When nearly dry, press with a warm iron—never a hot one. Glaze silk should be gently glowed as you iron.

Wall Street.
(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Nov. 21.—Insignificant changes marked the early dealings on the stock exchange today. Advances and recessions were confined to small fractions except in the case of Maxwell Motors, first preferred which rallied 1 1/2 points from yesterday's severe decline. Other motors, also copers and specialties, were inclined to ease under the slightest pressure. Leading industrials, including U. S. Steel and war equipments moved within very narrow limits and rails were neglected.

Less than 100,000 shares changed hands in the first hour with further curtailment later, but dullness was without adverse result on quoted values. The bond market was easier on contracted operations.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Nov. 21.—Barish construction placed on reports of a big drop in prices in Paris more than wiped out advances today in the corn market. Opening prices, which started from the same with yesterday's future, to 2 1/2 higher with December 1.25, to 1 1/2 and January 1.31, to 1.25, were followed by moderate fall in grain and then a setback to well below yesterday's finish. The close was firm 1/2 to 1c net high.

er, with December 1.25% to 1.25% and January 1.32% to 1.32%.
Data reflected the changes in corn. After opening unchanged to 1/4c lower with December 73 1/2, the market scored a little gain but again underwrote a gain.
Provisions lacked aggressive support. Prices had a downward slant.
Liberal supplies of hogs gave an advantage to the bear side of the market and especially so in the late dealings.

I rely on your sustaining the army's fair name."

JOINS THE LEGION OF ROYAL FLIERS

Ex-Grand Duke Ferdinand.
Former Grand Duke Ferdinand Franz IV of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, has joined the ranks of German royalty who are forsaking their titles and castles and leaving Germany. He abdicated recently and has been reported as arriving in Copenhagen with his English-born wife and children. A Danish king, his brother, received the abdication and family. Ferdinand became ruler of Mecklenburg-Schwerin on April 10, 1897, succeeding his father, Friedrich Franz III. He is thirty-six years old.

A striking illustration in the advance in the value of pearls was afforded at a recent auction sale in London. A necklace of 52 pearls, which was bought in 1863 at a London jeweler's for $550, was sold for $7500.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! A SMALL BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Dunderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Dunderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance and incomparable gloss and softness but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Dunderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It gets right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties causes the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—Adv't.

Howard's Buttermilk Cream in only sold on a positive guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Adv't.

BEST WAY TO WASH THE HAIR

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with Canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling. After its use you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy, so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of Canthrox, which you can get from any good druggist, dissolve it in a cup of hot water; this makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to use. It is the best hair wash ever used. Just use it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.—Adv't.

HOW NAVY CONSUMES COAL

Great Problem Put Up to Fuel Administration to Increase Supply.

Some idea of the problems put up to the Fuel Administration may be gained by consideration of the enlarged demands made by the navy alone. The questions of transportation, storage and labor connected with this supply were worked out by other agencies of the government, but here is the requisition made upon the coal supply of the nation for the operation of its greatly enlarged navy.

For the fiscal year 1917, Secretary Daniels' department called for about 1,200,000 gross tons of bituminous, but in the same period for 1918 the demand was for over 4,000,000 tons—in fact, 3,000,000 tons, or 60,000 carloads more than before, 90 per cent of which was delivered at tide water. That literally meant 1,200 more trains of 50 cars each—a sizeable undertaking.

But the demand for anthracite also increased, being three times as great as in 1917, and it took 4,600,000 barrels of fuel oil and 11,000,000 gallons of gasoline to supply the navy, which used also 400,000 gallons of distillate as fuel.

This tremendous increase had to be so proportioned among producers that the factories engaged in making essential war supplies should not be hampered and so that public utilities, houses of business and homes could have their needs filled.

How well the Fuel Administration has done its work can be judged from the fact that coal is available in Ohio wherever needed now.

CARING FOR HOT-AIR FURNACES

The following suggestions have been made by the Fuel Administration, for the operation of hot-air furnaces. Their observance will help save coal for essential industries and result in more comfort:

1. Provide cold-air drops from upper floors so as to insure a return circulation from all rooms to the air intake of the furnace.
2. Regulate the window of the cold-air box so as to avoid too great a current of outside air, especially on very cold days.
3. Always keep the water container in the air-jacket filled with clean water. Moist air heats much more readily than dry air, and is better for health, as well as more comfortable.
4. It is advisable to keep a jar of water near one of the first floor registers that sends out the most heat. Change the water frequently, preferably every day.
5. Hot-air pipes should have a good pitch upward from the furnace, and should be of sufficient diameter. They should also be wrapped with sheet asbestos. A separate pipe for each room with a turn damper near the furnace is a good rule. Each pipe should be labeled, so that certain rooms can be shut off at the furnace when desired.
6. Be sure the fire-box is gas-tight. All cracks must be thoroughly cemented or a new section put in. Otherwise coal gas will escape into the air-jacket and be carried up directly to the rooms.

FUEL LAW HAS TEETH
Profiteering Likely to Be Unprofitable in the Buckeye State.
The Fuel Administration for Ohio is beginning to show that the law under which it operates has teeth. The Food Administration has often forced donations to the Red Cross as penalties for disregard of its rules, but it will be news to some to learn that the Fuel Administration is following the same practice.

Only a few days ago a Columbus firm had the pleasure of turning over an excess profit in the form of a check, in this particular case having recourse on the original shipper, a West Virginia firm, which had charged more than the regulation price, to which the Columbus firm had added the permissible profit.

Profiteering, Fuel Administration officials declare, will not be tolerated. Where, as in the case mentioned, the original purchaser can not be located, or for any reason the refund can not be made thus, the Red Cross or some similar organization will benefit.

AIR CONTROLS HEAT
Proper Damper Regulation Will Save Fuel For You.
In the average home only about 25 per cent of the heat value is obtained. Tests made at the University of Wisconsin show that it is easily possible to obtain from 40 to 50 per cent and even 60 per cent. That means that half the annual household fuel bill is unnecessary and the money paid is wasted.

Most of this saving can be accomplished by proper damper control. Dr. Breckinridge of the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale gives an important rule, in view of the fuel shortage, when he says:

"The flow of air through the fuel makes it burn. Learn to control it. Try to visualize this flow of air through the fuel and you will easily learn how to operate the dampers to control it properly. The draft of the chimney is much diminished when, by opening the check damper, cold air is allowed to flow directly into the chimney."

Try it yourself. Don't let your money flow up the chimney. Better put it into War Savings Stamps.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.

True, the war is over, but come to the Grand tonight or tomorrow and see why. See the tanks charge across No Man's Land, with full speed ahead—a regular infantry of tanks—the machine that broke the Hindenburg line and put the Hun to flight; see the English cavalry going into action, a German shell exploding among them, leaving on the field dead and dying men and horses, yet they move forward. Don't miss this picture, one of the best ever shown in the city.

Wm. V. Mong Writes Story.

William V. Mong, well known Triangle character actor, recently featured in "The Hopper," is the author of "The Man Who Woke Up," which will be shown at the Grand theatre Thursday and Friday. Mr. Mong, himself, is seen in the leading role as old Joe.

WM. V. MONG IN TRIANGLE PLAY "THE MAN WHO WOKE UP."

DO NOT NEGLECT CHILDREN'S COUGH

or cold as it is likely to become deep-seated through neglect and hang on the whole winter, if it does not become chronic or develop into something serious. Relieve and cure it promptly with SCHIFFMANN'S EXPECTORANT. This remedy is so strongly concentrated that five cents worth makes a half pint of the most powerful of excellent cough medicines, by simply mixing it at home with honey or sugar syrup. It is prepared from strictly harmless plants and is so pleasant that children like to take it, and it can be given them with perfect safety. It positively contains no narcotics, as do most cough mixtures. No risk is run in buying the remedy, as druggists are authorized to refund money if it does not give perfect satisfaction or is not found the very best remedy you have ever used for children's Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough and Hoarseness.

tureque Colonel Oglesby of Oglesburg, Va. Dan Cupid invades the citadel of southern prejudice and shoots up Colonel Oglesby's household so thoroughly that the old "Johnny Reb" gets a haircut and a new set of opinions.

ALHAMBRA.

"A Pair of Cupids."

"A Pair of Cupids," starring Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, will be shown at the Alhambra theatre Friday and Saturday. It is a pleasure to say that this is one of the genuine Bushman and Bayne offerings which will delight you. It is a five reel picture brimful of fun and love and is delightfully played. The heroine, portrayed by Beverly Bayne, is a social butterfly. The man she calls a "husband" is a "business" man. Both of these qualities in the opposite sex. A match making guardian devises the clever idea of developing the maternal instinct in the girl and responsibility in the man—the result is surprising and the complications are varied and unusual.

AUDITORIUM.

"The Silent Man."

William S. Hart, photographer of the sort Thomas H. Ince is making for Artercraft always can be depended upon to provide an entertainment in which the elements of romance and adventure are foremost. In his newest screen effort, "The Silent Man," now showing at the Auditorium, admirers of this foremost delineator of western characters will find him in a setting affording rich opportunity for the display of his exceptional talent.

"The Silent Man" reveals Hart in the character of a miner who has struck "pay dirt" and who has come into a small border town for the purpose of registering his claim. Just how the miner is robbed of his mine through the connivance of a government clerk, and how he regains possession of his property and incidentally wins the heart and hand of a very charming and pretty young girl, are interestingly shown during the unfolding of the story.

In "The Silent Man" Hart has the assistance of a company of skilled screen players, headed by that beautiful young actress, Vera Vale. This feature is seen today and tomorrow.

"Flo-Flo."

Seat sale started today for John Cort's "war bride" musical comedy, "Flo-Flo," which opens at the Auditorium theatre on next Saturday afternoon and evening. "Flo-Flo" which is said to be the most extensively gowned production ever made, delighted smart New York all last season.

In addition to its exclusive line of laughs, lyrics and stunning costumes exhibited in the Fido Shop of Mosher and Shapson, "Flo-Flo" boasts of the only comedy chorus ever assembled for of American effort in this war, it has been decided to show this film at popular war time prices within the reach of all. In this comprehensive picture one will see Uncle Sam's soldiers in the making; the work at the cantonments; the activities of the great war charities; the Red Cross, Knights of Columbus, Masons and Y. M. C. A.; how the army is fed and clothed; the making of arms and ammunition; farmers in the fields doing their part and workmen in factories, each and all giving his best effort for his country; the building of ships on a scale such as the world has never seen; the navy in action; American aviators in the air somewhere in France and the boys in khaki with General Pershing on the western front. The Government requests all to see these pictures.

"A Night in Honolulu."

"A Night in Honolulu" in this latest play from the pen of Howard McKent Barnes, which comes to the Auditor-um next week, the author has made not only a series of radical changes in the unfolding of the story of life in Hawaii. Not the least of which is the characterization of the Americans seen in the play. Some of the most successful plays on this subject have sought fit to either ridicule the Americans or else made him a cad and money grubber. In "A Night in Honolulu" the American is seen as a human being, capable of sympathy and ability to deal squarely. One can see this play and hear with the comfortable impression of the strong protecting the weak, of intelligence guiding non-intelligence. Surely a welcome innovation.

Scene from "Flo Flo," Coming to the Auditorium theatre Saturday, November 23.

Thea Bara in "Salome." Theatre-goers will have an opportunity to witness the William Fox super-production presenting Thea Bara in "Salome" at the Auditorium theatre soon. This presentation of "Salome" is said to be the most gigantic and gorgeous production ever screened and cost one million three hundred thousand dollars to produce. It took over eight months to make at the William Fox Hollywood Studios, and will far surpass any production the world has seen to date. One scene alone, mirroring historical sets (seen on the screen

"Pershing's Crusaders" will be shown at the Auditorium for two days, starting Sunday. In order that every one may see and thus realize the results not over five minutes) is said to have cost fifty thousand dollars.

GEM.

With "The City of Tears," which will be seen first at the Gem theatre on Friday, Bluebird introduces a most engaging little actress in the person of Leatrice Joy. Miss Joy, whose name is extremely appropriate, plays the role of a little artist's model who engaged her heart as well as her pretty face to her employer.

'SEBORRHEA A HAIR SCOURGE

Seborrhea is the scourge that kills the hair.

It propagates the dandruff bacilli and eventually causes baldness.

If your hair is falling out, it is fighting for its life.

Nature fights to supply new hair, but with seborrhea in the sebaceous glands each succeeding hair is weaker.

Baldness keeps coming closer and closer—unless FAMO is used. FAMO destroys the dandruff bacilli. It ends all itching.

FAMO causes the growth of new healthy hair.

It retards grayness—it contains no alcohol.

FAMO intensifies the natural color of the hair and adds a new luster and sheen.

Every member of the family should use FAMO regularly.

Even where the scalp is healthy, FAMO should be used as it will keep seborrhea away.

Also, it will make the hair soft and fluffy. Its use is a daily habit you will enjoy.

FAMO comes in two sizes—a small size at 35 cents and a big bottle at $1. Your money will be returned if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrheic excreta forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

Tells How to Stop a Bad Cough

Surprising results from this famous old home-made syrup. Easily prepared and costs little.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with cough and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known remedy of relieving severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Washing Won't Rid Head Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

SENATE WANTS PART IN PARLEY

Is Anxious To Have Prompt Information of Proceedings In Conference Abroad.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Nov. 21.—The part the senate may play in connection with the peace conference was discussed yesterday by the foreign relations committee. No action was taken and, with the consent of its author, the committee also postponed action on the resolution of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, to endorse the President's principles for a free Polish state.

On the question of connection of the senate with peace negotiations some members suggested that it might be advisable for the senate to be represented on the American delegation. Others, however, believed such representation might be embarrassing. The principal consideration, Chairman Hitchcock said, was how the senate and the committee shall be kept informed of progress at the peace table and how the senate's views on the principles under discussion shall be made clear.

Senator Lodge's resolution was laid aside because, after consultation by Senator Hitchcock with the state department it was said that all of the allies are agreed on the question of a free Poland and there is no disposition to circumscribe the proposed Polish state except, possibly, by permitting Germany to retain a part of East Prussia.

Pierre Lott, former premier of the Russian provisional government, will be received next week by the committee for a discussion of Russian affairs.

MATRIMONIAL MARKET IN BERLIN PICKS UP

New York, Nov. 21.—Matrimonial order has been supplemented by martial zeal in Germany, as evidenced by the advertising columns of German newspapers received here. Matrimonial "ads" cover whole pages and inserted by people of all walks of life.

A peculiar feature of these advertisements is that many make appeals for husbands or wives for relatives. Parents, brothers, sisters and even friends of those who seek mates invite correspondence from those matrimonially inclined. War invalids, wealthy physicians, manufacturers and rich widows are among those who resort to publicity. One advertiser said he is a widower who has property amounting to several millions marks. He admits he is 58 years old, but says he "looks young." A physician, who had an annual income of 100,000 marks, seeks to arrange a meeting with a "beautiful stately woman, object matrimony."

Secrecy of tobacco in Germany is shown by the large number of advertisements offering to purchase cigars and cigarettes in any quantity offered.

LIBRARY DOES MUCH GOOD WORK QUIETLY

There is an old saying that we can not judge a man by his coat, which is but a figurative way of saying we can not determine an institution by the show it puts on or the noise it makes. There is no institution in the city of Newark which is doing more efficient work than the Public Library, and there is none that tells so little about its work. Unfortunately the demand for money for other public work has seemed more urgent to our city officials so the library has never received public funds adequate to its needs. Private subscriptions have made its work possible. Few people can subscribe a thousand or a hundred dollars, but most of us can give one dollar or five dollars while all can give ten or twenty five cents.

The Thalan girls of the Newark High school are going to take subscriptions for the Public Library next Saturday. They call it "Tag Day" and will solicit your subscription on the streets of Newark. If you knew the good the Public Library does, as well as our school children do, you would give liberally and enable the Thalan girls to turn to the library board not dimes and quarters but dollars and eagles.

BOYS CELEBRATE WHEN KAISER ACCEPTS TERMS

An interesting letter has been received by L. M. Patterson of 105 South Fifth street from John Papanek of headquarters company, 32nd H. F. A. The letter was written October 14, and under handwritten "He was in a ditch about 15 feet under the ground. He told of a narrow escape he had and which was mentioned before in a letter written home."

"The towns over here on the front are all blown to pieces, nothing left but a pile of stone. I could write you a book; but if you could only see me writing this, I am kneeling awhile, then I stand awhile and then I lie down and every way possible to write."

"I had a letter from Denny Brisson and was glad to hear from him. Bill Glaesges just came up and he said he had been talking to Dick Fernow. I am going to look up that outfit now, if I can."

"Fritz last night sent over some gas and that gas mask is my best friend now. I sure do love it. This makes the third front we have been on and we are giving the Hunns hell. Everytime Fritz sends one over at us we sent three back at him."

"One of the boys just came in with a paper dated October 13 and it says that the Kaiser is going to agree to Wilson's 14 articles. The boys sure are going crazy over it but the shells are still falling."

FEEDING THE HUNGRY AMERICA'S MISSION.

One hundred and eighty million people in Hungary, France will look to America for food which no other people can give them.

In their misery and famine, Belgium, Northern France, Central Russia, Serbia, Montenegro, Poland, Romania and Armenia will cry to us.

Let us feed them as food never came. We must save that we can give.

It is America's mission, our opportunity to serve.

The shortest surest way to feed all is through sharing food with those whose need is greater than ours.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Constipation is the arch-enemy of health. Conquer this enemy and you rout a whole army of physical foes, including indigestion, biliousness, sick headache, sleeplessness and nervous dyspepsia. Beecham's Pills have been a world-favorite laxative for over sixty years. They go straight to the cause of many ills and remove it. They act promptly, pleasantly and surely. Immediately following the end of the war, comes the announcement from the government, that the restrictions limiting new building have been removed.
 Any new residence costing under $10,000.00 may be built, and any public building under $25,000.00 comes under the new ruling of the War Industries Board.

The government not only permits the above to be erected, but furthermore encourages their construction, as a partial solution of the returning labor problem, and after-war adjustments.
 Repairs of any kind may also be made.

The yards of service at Newark and Granville are ready to give assistance

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment.
 Read this twice-tested testimony. It's Newark evidence—doubly proven.
 Mrs. Julia Rost, 140 W. Main St., gave the following account of her experience on September 14, 1914: "My back felt weak and when I did any sweeping or other household work, sharp pains often caught me across my back.
 Dizziness troubled me a lot. Whenever I bent over I felt as though I was going to fall and specks came before my eyes. There was an ache in the back and top of my head and my kidneys didn't act at all as they should.
 Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills gave me splendid relief. My kidneys became normal and the pains left."

Results That Remain.
 On February 7, 1917, Mrs. Rost said:
 "I have had no need of Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine since I took the first box in 1914. I gladly endorse Doan's again."

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate.)

Granville, Nov. 21.—The announcement that the long deferred song recital by Prof. E. W. Soule, head of the voice department in Denison Conservatory, assisted by Miss Leila C. Brown, an accompanist, would be given Wednesday evening, was sufficient to pack the hall to the outside doors, with an appreciative audience. The delightfully varied program can best be described as an Artists' Concert, so exquisitely was the interpretation of each number by both singers and accompanist, and so spontaneous the response from the audience. From the first note of the stately Handel group to the breezy sweep of Brauscombe's "Morning Wind," Mr. Soule held his hearers enthralled, generously responding with three encores during the evening to the storm of applause which greeted each number. Ronald's "Cycle of Love," the "Prelude," "Down in the Pines," and "Love I Have Won You," was a masterpiece of vocal conception. Voice and accompaniment were one, as indeed was the case throughout the entire performance. To this, as an encore, Mr. Soule sang the song with the universal appeal, as only he can sing it, "When the Boy Comes Home" by Ove Speaks Flanders Fields, a group of two poems cladded forth by the war were presented with expressive musical settings for the first time before a Granville audience. The Appal by Berger, and "The Answer" by W. Soule, deeply stirred the audience and Mr. Soule responded to the ovation by repeating a stanza of his own composition.

The aria from Verdi's "Aida" was given in the original, but so fine was the diction and so perfectly attuned were singer and accompanist, that no shade of meaning in the impassioned utterance was lost on the audience. The closing group consisting of "Daisy Boy" by Weatherly, "House of Memories" by Aylward, "Cradle Song of 1915" by Fritz Kreisler, "Twilight" by Glen, "The Morning Wind" by Brans West Maple street.

LICKING COUNTY'S SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

"I received the service medal sent to me by the citizens of Licking Co. and certainly do appreciate it. It has been admired by my shipmates. I am having a good time on board ship, but as all mail is censored I can not tell where I am. Stanley V. Hardway, U. S. S. Iowa, care P. M., New York City."

The C. W. B. of the Eden church met at the home of Mrs. Maggie Van Winkle in St. Louisville last Thursday afternoon.

"Sweet are the uses of adversity," quoted the Wise Guy. "I don't care for sweet myself," replied the Simple Mug softening influence on a man. Billy— "That's right. Every time I look at you I feel like getting soft."

TELEPHONE TO GIRLS TO GET YOUR LIBRARY GIFT

The young women of the Thelain Literary society and their friends will start out early next Saturday morning to distribute tags and receive voluntary contributions for the Newark public library.

This worthy institution has stood for many years as a poor relation to the city of Newark.

With no home of its own it has been housed in the soldiers' and sailors' building. Thanks to the trustees of that building.

The city council has kept it from actual starvation for the rest it has been dependent upon the generosity of a few individual friends, the public schools and the club women of the city.

While the generosity was sincere it was spasmodic and times without number the librarians have spent wakeful nights wondering where-with-all the library should be clothed on the morrow.

Such persevering women as Mrs. Eliza Rankin, Mrs. Neva Reese and Miss Sook deserve much credit for the standard of excellence they have maintained for the library, under such overpowering difficulties.

Newark has acquired the habit of going over the top. These interested in the library hope the citizens will keep it up and send the Thelain girls way over the top with their tag-day on Saturday. Fourteen teams will be at work with the following captains:

No. 1—Miss Mary Kibler.
2—Geneva Fry.
3—Gwendolyn Davies.
4—Mary Baird.
5—Sara Crist.
6—Miss Doris.
7—Marie Dodd.
8—Mildred Ditter.
9—Sara McConnell.
10—Helen Carlyle.
11—Elizabeth East.
12—Mildred Martin.
13—Sara Long.
14—Dorothy Spear.

Who will be the first to phone one of the going ladies to come and get a contribution of $5—more or less?
